THE OLD, NEW WISH.

The Bulletin extends its warmest wishes for a Very Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

ON THE RIGHT ROAD.

Though we close down over the Balkans and subdued rumblings come from Venezuela, Christmas of 1932 made the world progress in peace. It has indeed come to be a kind of undisturbed thing that the Balkan States and the South American Republics must be eliminated from the common scene to be certain of European peace. These little nations seem to be the perpetual sources of international problems and internal disorders of all proportion to their size and it is a dull season when any other of them is not either offering mental combat to a powerful neighbor or indulging the sensation of a cheap dynasty with new methods of military reconquering of war. Of course these diversions always call the possibility of leading the larger of one into conflict. But this year has become so common a condition of life that it grows very less likely to materialize. And this year, too, we have seen a real war great or small. Even before the war, at least some countries are large forces in promoting or preventing wars; and just because the settled conviction of the nation is that there will be no conflict, the war growing out of the troubles now is likely to occur. This conviction is likely to occur. This conviction is likely to occur. This conviction is likely to occur.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The Swifts and the Armourers of Chicago are threatening "meat war." Familiarly legends likeness and these men have been cultivating the acquaintance of the hog for a couple of generations back.

President Roosevelt has handed out the order for a new constitution of the United States. He says, he is bound to oppose the seizure of any territory by force. The President has said that he would not protect every country on the continent from what might be the world's most powerful bank of an European power. A. H. H. is now assuming a fighting pose toward Venezuela, the information we may have been informed by a hint that Cuckoo Sam does not intend to interfere in prospective arrangements.

THE MERCHANTS BANK.

The directors of the Merchants Bank of Canada, in their report to the shareholders on the business of the year just closed, say that the maintenance of sound financial conditions is a purely defensive measure. In this we may surely discern a real advance and a considerable advance toward the goal of peace and good will among the nations, the idea which embodies the spirit, the meaning and the purpose of Christmas.

A TATE NEED.

Canadian papers have been commenting with very good reason on the splendid report of the year's operation of the Victoria, Australia, railroads. These railways are owned by the state. They were formerly managed as a department of the government, but our own International Road has been managed, and with equally satisfactory results. A few years ago, a system of management was inaugurated. A board of commissioners was instituted to manage the roads, and at the head was placed Mr. Thomas Tate, formerly an official of the C. P. R. The change produced results quite due to all and produced them quickly. The annual deficit disappeared, the railways were bettered, and charges of the more important kinds were reduced; to put it broadly, the roads ceased to be liabilities about the neck of the state, and at the same time they became efficient launchers of traffic.

Canada faces a situation similar to that which confronted Victoria when the change was decided. We have not put money into our government roads in a nervousness of spirit. Under every government, the roads have been found unable to pay their way. Occasionally they passed a year without running as far into debt, but the succeeding year has usually made up the fault. We have under our government and at no stage of our history succeeded in getting the government road roads permanently on the back of paying their way. Clearly this cannot go on and should not go on. With every regard for the communities served by the government roads, there are other parts of Canada where interests have to be considered, and people other than those benefited by the roads whose money has been going into an unending current. This is evident, and if continued might be used to produce a pretty general conviction that we might not abandon the roads, but we should then, give them away or tear them down.

them up, then keep them as white elephants feeding forever on the public trough. If the government-owned roads cannot be made to pay then they ought to be put out of business in the name of the general good.

Victoria's experience suggests, however, that they might be made to pay if they were put under a different system of management. That the fault is in the system and not of the individuals who have headed the railway department is proved by the fact that the financial results have been different in degree only, whoever was in charge. Not even in the case of the railway department has been unfortunate in the men who have directed it. Men of outstanding ability on both sides of politics have managed the department, yet all of them have not the same fate in the financial outcome of the public-owned roads. Whatever the reason this is the fact and that it has been a fact on invariably is assurance that the fault does not lie in the business liability of the roads but in the lack of public spirit of the ministers who have tried and failed. The alternative is that it lies in the system, and if so the remedy lies in the alteration of the system. How this alteration may be accomplished the report of the Victoria roads suggests. And not least among the reasons it suggests as to why the system there has been as different as it has been, is that at the head of the Victoria roads was put a man whose life had been spent learning the intricate and tremendous difficulties of business of running a railway. Canada has produced more than its share of men who have put out their hands on the job and given him all the help he needs.

DEPRESSION IN BELGIUM.

Brussels, Dec. 23.—Belgium has no reason to be gratified this Christmas by an industrial scene bright throughout the country, especially among the workers in the principal business is exporting to America. The glass and cement exports have fallen by nearly 50 per cent. in many years. The wages of coal miners have been reduced 15 per cent. and the ironworkers have lowered the price of their products to 10 per cent. in the metallurgical interests of Belgium. It is said that the price of iron in Belgium is the one continental country that has not been helped by the fresh wave of prosperity in the United States, but it is hoped that after Christmas the normal demand related with America will be established.

HOCKEY.

STETTLER AFTER CHAMPIONSHIP.
Stettler, Dec. 22—Jockey Stettler, who is riding upon the horse who is to be a strong one and is determined to win the trophy again, is one of the winners of this district who will play off with the winners of the Edmonton, Strathcona and Vegreville districts. What is needed is the support of the business men, and altogether financial support is a general interest in this Canadian game.

QUEEN'S AVENUE TEAM WON.
The opening game in the School Hockey League was played on the City Rink last evening between the Queen's Avenue and McKay Avenue. The Queen's Avenue team won by a score of 4 to 1. H. Bull acted as referee. The following was the line up:

Queen's Avenue—Beane, M. Henry, E. Fowler, W. Carter, M. T. and F. Tait.
McKay Avenue—Lynn, G. Olmstead, C. Birtchard, H. Loomis, B. Potter and E. Kerr.

OFFICIALS FOR GAMES.
Montreal, Dec. 24—Russell Bowie and Channery Kirby have been decided upon as officials for the Stanley cup games. Both Edmonton and the Wanderers are agreed on them.

BOWLING.
In a view of the coming season between Calgary and Edmonton the question of whether bowling is a professional or amateur game again arises. The officials of the C.A.U. announce their belief that bowling is an amateur sport. J. H. Morkin, president of the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union, speaking of the belief of that organization regarding bowling said:

"The only answer needed as to basis of our present claim of participation in the game is that the game is one of the sports which included under the amateur sports which was done or said by the C.A.U. two or three years ago. The Montreal people can best speak. At that time the C.A.U. was practically the creature of the amateur sports. The fractions of the union then were generally manipulated by the C.A.U. and the C.A.U. was in accordance with the general ideas of the C.A.U. then. The C.A.U. has since been a legal body, and is a national Canadian organization, and we are endeavoring to administer it accordingly, irrespective of the pleasure or displeasure of the C.A.U. duals or communities. The frames of our constitution define bowling as being one of the amateur sports under the regulation of the C.A.U., and we have no option but to recognize it as such and accordingly."

RUGBY.
Will English or Canadian Rugby be played in Alberta next year. This is the question that will eventually have to come up for decision in Edmonton and other Alberta cities where Rugby is played. Edmonton should next year have a voice in this matter as they have the provincial Rugby championship and plan to form a three team city league next fall. This year the Edmonton Rugby team was not organized until late and as Calgary had already decided to play Canadian Rugby the loss from the Capital province had to follow suit. Both Canadian and English Rugby have been an ardent supporter in the province and the controversy promises to be a long one.

In British Columbia English Rugby is played and is very popular. This is the same game played in England, New Zealand, Australia and some parts of Canada. The adoption of this game would make international Rugby possible. The New Zealand Rugby Federation is stating a movement to have the English Rugby rules revised. The following are some of the changes suggested:

1. Wing forward to be abolished.
2. A penalty to be imposed on any player who crosses an imaginary line drawn through the back of the scrum on his own side while the ball is in the scrum.
3. No charge to be allowed in case of a free kick or kick at goal.
4. The three in from touch to be lost five yards.
5. The referee to place the ball in the scrum.
6. A player brought to the ground to be allowed to pass the ball, even though it has touched the ground, provided it be done immediately.
7. The game to be played in four parts of 20 minutes each, with an interval after the second stop.

Chicago, Dec. 23—Oscar Gardner, retired pugilist, who is residing upon the honors was while fighting under the name of the "Black Kid" was today fined $100 in the police court for selling liquor to a minor. COMING FIGHT EVENTS.

The greatest boxing event of the month is the meeting between Tommy Burns and Jack Johnson in Sydney, Australia, on December 28th. The odds are in favor of Burns. On the other side the Mills will meet Bill Mackay, a new one to fight critics, in New Orleans. On New Year's Eve, Jim Barry will meet Al Kaufman, the big San Francisco heavyweight fighter, in a 4-round contest, before the Jim Jeffries' Club at Los Angeles, Calif.

NEW CITY DEPARTMENT.

The city commissioners have decided to recommend that the power house plant be made a separate department, instead of charging the operation up to the electric light department, and the street railway department, as at present. In future, the power house will be placed in the other departments at cost price, and in this way it is thought that the utilities can be kept in much better shape from a financial standpoint.

TWO CHAPS TO STRATHCONA.

The new motor generator for the purpose of changing the alternating current from the gas power plant to direct current for use on the street cars is expected to be here before the end of the week, and will be installed at once upon its arrival. When it is ready for use, before the end of next week, all the street cars, including two Strathcona, will be put in operation—this is the first time that the Strathcona continues to operate in the strathcona manner of the past two weeks.

HOCKEY TOMORROW.

On Christmas afternoon the Edmonton Wanderers will play Strathcona in the first amateur provincial league hockey match in the Strathcona rink commencing at 3:30. Arrangements are being made to have cars leave the corner of First and Jasper Streets 2 and 3:30 tomorrow to accommodate all those wishing to see the game. The Wanderers' players will be backed from the following: Allan Beane, Taylor, Feltner, McKenney, Bradford, Bell and Beall.
